

WIND ENERGY

Independent expertise

Transenergie provides project owners, developers, local councils and industries with an independent expertise, for assisting in developing local wind energy production. The objective is to deliver custom designed medium-scale projects for the benefit of local communities, as a complement to large-scale industrial parks. By working with Transenergie, land and project owners keep complete autonomy in their decisions for the construction and the management of their wind resource.

Services

PRE-FEASIBILITY STUDIES

- Preliminary assessment of the wind resource
- Identification of the administrative and technical constraints
- Preliminary sizing of the wind plant
- Economical analysis

FEASIBILITY STUDIES

- Monitoring campaign
- Detailed sizing of the wind turbine (with WindPro©)
- Environmental Impact Assessment
- Detailed economical and financial analysis
- Authorizations & permits procedures
- Project planning.